Christensen Claims

Council Endorsement Individual Actions

SEE LETTER TO EDITOR
Page 5

By Jim Christensen

"Since the formation of Upland Citizens for Christensen was announced in the press a few days ago a question has arisen which needs clarification," stated Jim Christensen, Upland Councilman and Republican candidate in the 72nd Assembly district.

Christensen continued, "Along with many other Citizens, all four of my fellow Councilmen and Mrs. Dee Carpenter, City Clerk, have endorsed my candidacy for the State Assembly. The unanimity shown in their endorsement has led a few people to question whether their actions were taken during a City Council meeting and thus constitutes official city policy. I want to answer this question at this time. The actions of these city officials are purely personal and were done individually as citizens of my district. The Upland City Council has not and cannot take such action."

Christensen concluded by saying, "I state again that I am highly honored that my colleagues feel strongly enough about my candidacy to publicly endorse me. By doing so they subject themselves to crank calls and letters from those who support my opponent. They could have taken the easy road and stayed neutral, but they all have the courage of their convictions.

Not many politicians in today's 'don't rock the boat' atmosphere have such courage. I am happy to say that I have been endorsed by a total of 20 Mayors and Councilmen in the 72nd District. My campaign Chairman will release to the press in a few days the formation of similar committees in Rialto, Fontana, Colton, and San Bernardino."

Police-PO Cooperate To Stop Obscene Mail

Upland families receiving pandering advertisements in the mail, which they find offensive have authority under a new Federal Law to ask that its members receive no more mail of any kind from the sender, according to a report this week from Upland Postmaster, John W. James.

Postal authorities explain that an advertisement is considered pandering if it offers to sell material which is, in the opinion of the recipient "erotically arousing or sexually provocative." The material can be in the form of a display, classified, or editorial - style advertisement.

The receiver of the mail is the judge of whether an advertisement is offensive to him. If the family or person finds the material offered is of a pandering nature they can bring the evidence to the local post office and fill out a form provided by postal authorities.

The Post Office Department and the Department of Justice are required by law to follow several specific steps in carrying out a family's request that it receive no more mail from a firm mailing what they believe is pandering advertising.

When the patron's request is properly submitted the Post Office Department sends a "prohibitory order" directing the sender to refrain from any further mailing of any kind to the complaining patron. This is effective 30 days after sender's receipt of the order.

If the mailer still fails to respect the order, and the Department finds that it is being violated, the Postmaster General will ask the Attorney General to apply for a Federal Court order directing compliance.

Top Stars Appear In Area 'Grape Stomping' Saturday

The ever-popular Rudy Vallee makes a rare appearance at the labor day week-end Cucamonga Wine and Grape Festival. A special "one-man" show sets off three days of free fun and entertainment at Regina Winery, host of the festival for the sponsoring Growers and Vintners Association.

Vallee -- one of the all-time greats of show business -- will offer an informal menu of songs, humor and stories. The original vagabond lover is now semi-retired but makes occasional guest appearances on television. He retains the same personable charm and freshness with a mixture of nostalgic tunes such as "The Whiffenpoof Song," the "Maine Stein Song" and, of course, his "Your Time Is My Time," and a lampooning of the 20's and 30's. Vallee's performance is slated for 1 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 31.

The Popular Grape Stomping Contest, open to women 18 years and older, and the Cork-popping Derby for men begin at 2 p.m. each day of the festival. They both carry cash prizes and a chance to compete in Monday's finals.

Regina Winery opens at 10 a.m.

A 1 p.m. Sunday matinee features the Swingin' Stars Square Dancers. TV's popular Ben Hunter of Channel 11 emcees Sunday's contests at 2 p.m.

James Drury, known to TV fans as "The Virginian," emcees the Monday Labor Day Program. The NBC star will crown the 1968 winners of the Grape Stomping Contest and Champagne Cork-Popping Derby.

Alta Loma High Sets Pre-registration Date

Pre-registration for new students at Alta Loma High School must be completed by September 6, according to Tom Maxfield, assistant principal in charge of programing.

Students are advised to come to the main office at their convenience Monday through Friday from 7:30 a.m. until 3:30 p.m. A counselor will discuss each student's desired program and special interests, and arrange for transcripts to be mailed from other schools.

Returning students are reminded that their programs may be changed if they do not attend the first day of classes September 10; schedules will be held for those who notify the office of their intended absence.

Girl Scouts Learn Camp Skills At Hideout Canyon

Hideout Canyon is a short term resident camp offered Girl Scouts of the Spanish Trails Girl Scout Council, who are entering the 4th and 5th grades. The camp is located at the entrance of the San Dimas experimental forest in Big Dalton Canyon.

The camp is designed as a first camping experience for nine and ten year old Scouts. By the end of the eighth session, August 30, 288 girls will have had a week making new friends, learning new skills and growing in the Girl Scout program. They live in units of 18 girls each and with the assistance of two Counselors plan their activities for the week. Some of the projects will include nature crafts, hikes, making fossil casts and friendship sticks. Most of the meals are prepared by the camp cook, Mrs. Warren Green and her assistant, Julie McKenry of Covina. However, the campers do plan and cook one meal outdoors. The dam in Big Dalton Canyon affords a good hiking destination and a guided tour is offered by the caretaker. Wading in the creek is a welcomed activity on a hot afternoon and also gives the campers a chance to study various forms of life found in the water.

A special event is held each week in place of the regular campfire. Often it's a costume party with the campers making their costumes from whatever they had on hand. Singing around the campfire, stories and skits usually bring a busy camp day to a close.

Staff members included: Mrs. Loyce Saylor of Glendora, who was Director for July and Mrs. H. P. Mac Cullum, Whittier, who is Director for August. The Unit staff Counselors are: Lynetta Coletta, West Covina; Connie Harman and Karen Shipway, Upland, and Pat Ochoa of Diamond Bar.

Letters To The Editor

Letters to the Editor
The Upland News
Bonita Publishing Company
Po Box 2188 Montclair, California

Dear Editor:

The Upland News published on August 14th an item entitled, "Entire City Council Jim's Co-Chairmen."

While council members have the privilege of supporting Mr. Christensen as private citizens, I doubt that they respect the non-partisan nature of their offices when they allow their official titles to be used in a statement of support for this Republican candidate.

When I served on a citizens' committee some years ago, to develop public support for bonds for Upland High School, I learned how a citizens' committee is used to promote a particular project. I think a citizens' committee for Christensen exists to promote his campaign, and I suspect city council members of exploiting the prestige of their non-partisan offices when they allow these titles to be used in a partisan campaign.

Mr. Christensen has stated his opposition to the Rumford Act on open housing. . . . Mr. Christensen's religious convictions have manifested themselves in his overt stand against open housing. I feel this seriously disadvantages him as a candidate from a District where so many minority-group voters reside.

Mr. Christensen supported for Governor a man who named to the state labor commission one of the leaders of the Right to Work Law group, which is pro-management and whose goal is to weaken or destroy the bargaining power of organized labor in this state, just as Barry Goldwater helped to establish Right to Work Laws in Arizona.

If the members of Upland City Council cannot steer a non-partisan course, I should prefer different officers to take their places.

Yours truly,
Mrs. D.E. Veirs

August 28, 1968
To the Editor
Upland News
Upland, California

I have been away for three weeks and upon returning was amazed to read in the August 14 issue of The Upland News that I was a co-sponsor of Jim Christensen's campaign for election to the State Assembly.

If this news item came from Mr. Christensen's office there has been a great misunderstanding. As a voter I am entitled to support Mr. Christensen or any candidate, but I have not, do not, and will not serve as a member (let alone be a co-chairman) of a committee supporting his election. In the August 21 issue of The Upland News there was a letter to the Editor from a Mr. David Watters in which he expressed his opinion that members of a City Council should not as Councilmen publicly support any candidate for partisan office. I agree with the gentleman completely. I do not like to have my name used without my permission, especially when I am out of town.

All I can say is that as far as I am concerned the article stating that, as a Councilman, I was a supporter, co-chairman, sponsor or anything similar for Jim Christensen is completely untrue.

MWD Increases Tax Rate 2¢ For Fiscal Year

The Metropolitan Water District Board of Directors recently approved an increase of two cents in its tax rate for the fiscal year of 1968-69. This is the first boost in the MWD levy in 23 years. It brings the tax rate from 14 cents for each $100 of assessed valuation to 16 cents.

The increase in the rate is necessary in order to meet the District's tremendous financial obligations in connection with obtaining and distributing water from Northern California.

This is despite the fact that the rate for untreated water for municipal and industrial uses has been raised in the last 18 years from $8 an acre-foot (325,900 gallons) to $37 and that additional increases in water rates are certain during the next eight years.

Health Hints

Many physicians feel that it is not desirable to be completely permissive with young children and that some restrictions are necessary for healthy emotional development. On the other hand, it can be very frustrating and bewildering to a child when restrictions are placed on him which he cannot understand. Instructions and explanations are NOT understood by the child in the first year or two of life.

Many mothers have the mistaken idea that when they forbid a one-year-old child to touch an ash tray or vase by saying "No, no", the child understands.

In proof of this, they will point out that the child will touch the forbidden object and, looking at the mother, will say, "No, no". This is not willful disobedience.

Often it means that the child thinks "no-no" is the name of the object. Sometimes all the child understands from his mother's "no-no" is that the object is important.

Frequently, the re-proving tones in which the mother communicates the "no-no" tells the child only that his mother has negative feelings about him.

He is not at all ready to understand that he is being told not to touch the object.

ORDERLY DAY
Although many parents may not be aware of it, children first become familiar with the concept of an orderly, disciplined life through the organization of their own day -- a time for napping, for eating, for being bathed. This is all the order that should be imposed upon a child until he becomes mobile.

When the mother begins to place limitations upon where a child goes and what he touches, the do's and don'ts should be formulated in terms of the child's safety rather than the parents' convenience. He should be presented with only a few instructions at a time, in order to avoid confusing him. For example, start with impressing upon the child the importance of not sticking metal objects into electrical cords, and not running into the street. These are infinitely more important than stressing that a child keep his hands off valuable objects.

The mobile child will go through a predictable pattern in the examination of all objects he encounters. He will look at them, pick them up, feel them, taste them, and then throw them. Within limits, this type of exploration contributes to the child's development. But if the object can be harmful to the child or can be harmed by the child, it should be kept out of his reach.

GUILT FEELING
When a child disobeys, parents sometimes discipline him by making him feel guilty for what he has done. They tell him he has done something bad and may try to explain how it injures or offends someone else. This, of course, is not effective if the child is too young to understand verbal communication. In other instances, parents may cope with disobedience by retaliating with rejection -- that is, by withdrawing their love or approval. This, too, is a wasted gesture for the child to whom it cannot be explained verbally.

For the young child, not yet able to understand cause and effect in verbal terms, physical discipline, if it is wisely and judiciously used, is perhaps the most effective way to punish unacceptable behavior. It goes without saying that such discipline should not result in physical abuse of the child. The child with bruises is not the end-product of discipline but of vengeance. Physical punishment should be uncomfortable, but never harmful. Immediately after the child has been punished, he should be picked up and comforted lovingly. If punishment is followed by immediate forgiving, the child will ultimately learn that it is a specific action of his which the parent is rejecting -- not the child himself as a person.

Be Careful They Don't Pull Wool Over Your Eyes At L.A. Fair

POMONA -- There'll be a lot of wool before visitor's eyes at this year's Los Angeles County Fair.

Eight classes of sheep and lambs, over 200 in all, will be exhibited as part of senior livestock division competition for 10 days, Sept. 20-29, included are Cheviots, Columbias, Corriedales, Dorsets, Hampshires, Ramboullots, Shropshires, Southdowns, and Suffolks.

Judging will take place on Friday, Sept. 20 for market sheep and carcasses; Sept. 21 for Columbias, Southdowns, Dorsets, Corriedales, and Shropshires; and Sept. 22 for Ramboullots, Suffolks, Cheviots, and Hampshires. Leonard Higginson of Sardinia, British Columbia, will serve as judge.

In addition to the surplus of wool-on-the-hoof there'll also be some off. Fleeces of less than 12 months growth may be entered in wool competition a separate class of the sheep section. Judging will be based on quality, length, soundness, purity, color, character and condition. They will be displayed for the same period as sheep and lambs.

Over a million visitors are expected to see this largest of county fairs during its 17-day run, Sept. 13-29. A lot of them will be looking at wool, both on and off the hoof.

GET A GAS MASK -- Gas Masks may be necessary to make living less difficult in polluted air if the human race fails to clean up its environment, according to a University of Cincinnati professor. He said that as of right now the emitted pollution into air in the United States is estimated to be approximately 142 million tons and that if we continue at the present rate of "inappropriate" control this figure will double by 1980.

While Woodrow Wilson was a professor of history and political economy at Wesleyan University, he also helped coach the football team.

West End Church Sponsor National Bible Telecourse

"Christ and the Meaning of Life," a thirteen week National Bible Telecourse study, will be presented cooperatively by six churches in the West End area beginning September 11.

The Saint Mark's Episcopal and First United Methodist churches of Upland, and the Presbyterian churches of Upland, Ontario, Claremont and Pomona all have worked out a schedule whereby the telecourse film, taught by Dr. Edward W. Bauman, nationally known television teacher and Bible scholar, will be presented twice each week beginning September 11 and ending December 11.

The course is a study of the four Gospels with special emphasis on the problems faced by modern man as he tries to discover the ultimate purpose for his existence.

Dr. Edward Bauman

The unfolding story of Christ's life and ministry will furnish the general structure of the thirteen lessons. A half-hour lecture by Dr. Bauman focusing on a key passage in one of the Gospels followed by a half-hour discussion by the studio class made up of college and seminary students on film will be followed by another half-hour discussion by those attending led by a minister or qualified layman from the respective churches.

Brochures and textbooks for the telecourse will be available in each of the churches after the first of September, and all interested persons, regardless of church affiliation, are encouraged to contact the church offices and register for a nominal fee.

Seventh-day Adventists Plan To Study Biblical Proverbs

The differences between true and false wisdom will form the basis of a study at the West End Seventh-day Adventist Church Saturday, August 24, at 9:30 a.m., according to Mr. Elmer Cornwell, director of the church's adult Sabbath school. The church is located at 856 N. Sultana. Much of the study will examine the Biblical Proverbs of the wise king Solomon and the writings of the apostle James which reveal the ageless counsel that "the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom."

"The study will show that no man is really educated until he has a knowledge of God which is also essential to character building," stated Cornwell, in announcing the study, which is entitled "True and False Wisdom Are Contrasted."

"One who has an understanding of God's wisdom and knowledge will also experience a character change which will cause him to be peaceable, pure, gentle, merciful, humble and unselfish," Cornwell notes.

The study classes are conducted in the local church's Sabbath school for persons of all ages, from babies to adults. The public is welcomed at all services of the church, says Cornwell.

During the Saturday morning's service a report will be given of foreign mission activity in Central America to which special funds will be sent to help build two much needed new dormitories at Pena Blanca in Honduras and to help with needed facilities at Andrews memorial hospital at Kingston Jamaica.

LUTHERAN YOUNG PEOPLE'S CONFIRMATION -- Confirmation class under the direction of the Rev. Thomas B. Koske said vows on Pentecost Sunday, and now hold communicant membership with the Alta Loma King of Glory Lutheran Church. Front row: Mark Shaffer, Mark Noreen, John Parker. Back: Renee Rasmussen, Pastor Koske, Robin Stewart.

Vacation Bible School Sets Closing Program

Duane Wooters, ventriloquist, will entertain at closing exercises of the Alta Loma Community Church vacation Bible school to be held Friday, August 30, 7:30 p.m. in the church located at Baseline and Hellman.

Children who attended classes will present a program of skits and puppetry illustrating stories used in the course which began August 26. Parents, friends and members of the congregation have been invited to attend.

The program was under the direction of Mrs. Richard Milam, and included crafts and a supervised nursery.

Cucamonga-Alta Loma Firemen's Auxiliary Plans Stanley Party

The Cucamonga-Alta Loma Firemen's Auxiliary met recently at the Cucamonga Fire Hall with Mrs. Eunice Lewis presiding.

Plans for a sale of Watkins Products as a money raising event were discussed and by-laws regarding new members were studied and clarified. It was decided to purchase "Roberts Rules of Order Revised" for the club. Several members volunteered to help with the T.B. Skin Test Clinic to be held in September at Mayfair Market.

There will be a daytime work party soon to clean the Fire Hall kitchen.

The next meeting of the group will be held September 16 at the Fire Hall and will be followed by a Stanley Party.

King Of Glory Lutheran Church Confirmation Services Held

The Rev. Thomas B. Koske recently confirmed his first class of young people since serving his ministry at King of Glory Lutheran Church, Alta Loma.

Services were held on Pentecost Sunday and the following boys and girls made their confirmation vows receiving them into membership of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, Missouri Synod: Mark Noreen, John Parker, Renee Rasmussen, Mark Shaffer, and Robin Stewart.

The young people studied weekly with Pastor Koske for two years learning how to apply Scriptural truths to their own daily lives, plus learning the doctrine of their Lutheran Church.

They now hold communicant membership with King of Glory Lutheran Church, Alta Loma, which has its worship services at Sweeten Hall, Heilman at San Bernardino Rd., in Cucamonga.

Lutheran Church Plans Fall Women's Retreat

The Lutheran Women's Missionary League of King of Glory Lutheran Church held its summer meeting at the home of Mrs. Edward Stewart, 10-330 Liberty, Alta Loma August 6.

Eighteen members were present with Mrs. Dorothy Jagusch, President, conducting the business meeting, during which plans were made for a fall women's retreat.

"Except the Lord build the house, their labor is but lost that build it" - Psalm 127:1 was the key verse for a discussion on church unity led by Mrs. Robert Graft, program chairman. The topic was based on a booklet, "The True Function of a Christian Church" by John Heuss.

Devotional music was provided by Mrs. Paris Anderson and Mrs. Ken Taylor, followed by refreshments.

Presbyterian Women To Send Clothing Abroad

The annual packing day for clothing to be sent overseas through the Church World Service will be held by the Women's Association of the First Presbyterian Church of Upland. They will gather at 9:30 a.m. in Hart Fellowship Hall on Thursday, September 19.

Arrangements for the packing day will be made by Mrs. Royer Fudge and Mrs. T. A. Photos. There is still a need for clean used clothing (no shoes) which can be brought to the church office or to the meeting that morning. There will be combined circle meetings on September 26 at 9:30 a.m. and 1 p.m. in Hart Fellowship Hall. The Wednesday morning circle will meet with the Thursday morning circle, and babysitting will be provided.

Now Tattoo Service For Stolen, Lost Canines

The peak of the tourist season in Southern California is also the time when most dogs are lost or stolen, states the Animal Identification Service, Los Angeles.

To protect visitors and residents alike from the tragedy surrounding the loss of a beloved pet, tattoo service for positive permanent dog identification has been started at the Los Angeles SPCA shelter at 5026 W. Jefferson Blvd. (just east of La Brea).

A series of four numbers is applied to the inside of the dog's right thigh by a special electrical machine that causes no pain. All tattooing is done under the veterinary supervision of Dr. W.A. Young, former director of the Los Angeles Zoo who heads up Animal Identification Service.

There is a $5 charge for the tattooing and another $5 for life-long registration of the dog's number with the Canine Bureau of Identification Inc., New York, national registry for tattooed dogs. The combination of tattoo number and its registration with an organization that operates on a nation-wide basis provide the best method yet developed of recovering a lost or stolen dog. The Canine Bureau of Identification (CBI) has a unique tie-in with Western Union whereby any finder of a lost or stolen dog is authorized to wire CBI collect the name and location of the person who has the dog in custody. The message is relayed to CBI on Telex equipment and within minutes the owner is notified by prepaid telegram where the dog is so that he can arrange for its return.

As extra protection each tattooed dog registered with CBI is issued a special miniature telegram-shaped tag for the collar. This serves two purposes. It alerts the finder to report the dog's number to CBI and at the same time serves as warning to the would-be dog snapper to keep his hands off this particular dog lest it involve him in violation of Public Law No. 89-544 passed by the United States Congress for the specific purpose of safeguarding pets from ending up in research laboratories. CIM Guild To Display Arts, Crafts, Sept. 6

The Chino Arts and Crafts Guild, a newly formed organization composed of inmates of the California Institution for Men, is having a banquet on Friday, September 6th, on the grounds of the institution at 14901 S. Central Avenue, Chino.

Dedicated to furthering interest in the fine arts and to helping those who may lack instruction, or funds, or both, the Guild also hopes to destroy the stereotyped image of the convicted felon too often portrayed on the screen and in the news media. "Of course," the inmate publicity director of the group admits readily, "because of the actions of a few who are paroled and immediately resume a life of crime, we cannot completely condemn the writers and producers, but we must respectfully insist that these men are a definite minority. The average man in Chino lives only for the day when he can be a father to his children, a husband and making friends for the Guild rather than to sell the many paintings and other items of art to be displayed. "We want to sell," the news release says, "but we want to stress our motto: 'Through the Artists Eye—We are as One—You and I'."

Gates will be opened at 5:30 p.m. with dinner scheduled to be served at 7:15 p.m. Price will be $2.50 per person, to cover the cost of the food alone. Inmate speakers, as well as several prominent citizens, will be featured. Three paintings by our best inmate artists will be given away. Music, a short skit to be presented by Studio Forum (an inmate theatrical group), and other entertainment, will be provided free of cost. Viewing of the arts and crafts display will continue until approximately 10:30 p.m. Inasmuch as the dinner and the display are to be outdoors, guests are urged to dress warmly.

Did you ever realize how many great players in baseball history never had the opportunity of playing in a World Series... For example these Hall of Famers never got to play in a World Series: George Sisler, Luke Appling, Rube Waddell, Nap Lajoie, Ted Lyons and Willie Keeler... And there are some modern day stars who've never played in a World Series like Ernie Banks, Al Kaline and Jim Bunning.

Who was the first American to run the mile in under four minutes? ... His name: Don Bowden... He ran his sub-four minute mile while he was a student at the University of California in 1957.

Has there ever been anybody in big league baseball history who played in over 100 games in a season and NEVER struck out? ... It's never happened... The closest anyone ever came to that was infielder Joe Sewell who in 1925 played in 155 games, had 608 at bats, and struck out only four times all year.

More than 500 measures dealing in some fashion with the health of our California citizens were considered by us in the Legislature during our 1968 session. Some good bills were enacted, weak ones withered on the vine, and others which might have been good but failed final passage will certainly survive to appear at succeeding sessions.

Probably no other health measure was debated as heatedly as was a package of Medi-Cal bills seeking to streamline the operation of that program. In the end, four of them were passed by the Legislature.

One measure seeks to avoid duplicate payments on illnesses covered by both Medi-Cal and Medicare (the federal program), and another provides consultants, when needed, to assist counties with paper work involving the huge program.

Two other bills require the state health and welfare agency to try to meet short-term deficits in the Medi-Cal program by reducing or postponing payments to doctors, hospitals and other providers of services.

If it is impossible to save enough money by modifying the method and amount of payments, the agency would be authorized to postpone treatment which can be delayed without endangering the health of the patient.

In the field of mental health, legislation was passed which would provide a larger share of state financing of local mental health services under the Short-Doyle Act. Since 1963 the state has paid 75 per cent and the counties 25 per cent, but the new sharing would be on a basis of 90 per cent state and 10 per cent counties. Effective date is July 1, 1969.

We also approved sending to the voters in November a Constitutional amendment that, its proponents claim, could save California taxpayers up to $20 million a year. In the past, California has provided this amount as its share of matching funds for the construction or repair of hospitals and related facilities.

The amendment would authorize the Legislature to insure or guarantee hospital loans in a self-liquidating program rather than make direct state appropriations.

Other legislation enacted concerned malpractice, narcotics, radiation safety, health insurance, professional licensing requirements, and neglect and abuse of children.

DRIVE DEFENSIVELY ON LABOR DAY WEEK-END

The National Automobile Club points out that the Labor Day week-end will be one of the most dangerous periods of the year for motorists.

The Labor Day holiday will be a three-day weekend, starting Friday after work and ending Monday, at midnight. Once again the highways will take their toll, and during the weekend scores of motorists will be killed. Traffic accidents can be reduced. A safe driver is a defensive driver. Defensive driving does not mean motorists must become timid and frightened, but it does mean they must be cautious and alert to possible accident situations.

POMONA, Calif. - In the face of marked urban and industrial expansion, Pomona Valley and the west end of San Bernardino County have gained more than $5-1/2 million in total value of agricultural output during the past half a decade, the Inland Bank reported today in its quarterly economic review.

The study was made public today by Inland's President Wilson H. Asdel. It was the first of a two step analysis of the area's agricultural changes by the bank's economist, Dr. Gerhard N. Rostvold, and showed combined farm output rising to $93.7 million in 1967 from $88.1 million in 1961, due chiefly to the emergence of Chino Valley as the state's prime producer of dairy products.

DAIRY INCREASE
The dairy area increase which also contributed to a field crop acreage increase to 25,357 acres from 23,215 acres, more than balanced substantial decline in the total value of crop production from $25.9 million in 1957 to $18.3 million in 1967.

In the same 1957-67 decade, total acreage in citrus, grapes, vegetables and other crops declined from 65,875 acres to 46,093 acres.

Dr. Rostvold termed the withdrawal of the 20,000 acres from agricultural though it has brought economic development to the local area as productive of "a direct and everlasting impact upon the agricultural sector."

Despite the impact of development, Dr. Rostvold found, agricultural still accounts for approximately 10 per cent of the local gross regional product.

The dramatic growth of the Chino Valley dairy industry has accounted for virtually an increase to $78 million from $63 million in the value of livestock, poultry and animal production during the 1957-67 decade.

The Chino area alone rocketed to $58,548,000 from $34,969,354 in the same period. Cucamonga, Ontario, San Dimas, La Verne, Pomona, Walnut and Claremont shared in the farm losses, but with more than compensating gains in urban and industrial growth.

Stocks, Bonds Class Offered

Stocks, Bonds and Mutual Funds, a class covering modern fundamentals of investments is a fall semester offering of the Pomona Adult School. William M. Grant, registered representative and investment counselor with a New York Stock Exchange member firm, will instruct the class.

Registration for the course, which convenes on Tuesday evenings from 7:00 to 10:00 p.m. over a ten week period, may be completed at adult school headquarters located at 800 South Garey in Pomona.

Registration hours are 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Fridays, and 7:00 to 8:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday evenings.

The course of study is concentrated into four main areas: (1) To familiarize the student with the functions and operation of the modern securities market. (2) To acquaint the student with the various concepts of all three types of corporate securities - Bonds, Preferred and Common stocks - from the viewpoint of both the issuing company and the public or private investor, and to provide basic information regarding Investment Company shares (mutual funds).

Smog Makes You Look Older

California's smog may make the state's residents appear to grow older faster, according to scientists of the Air and Industrial Hygiene Laboratory, California State Department of Public Health.

The culprit in this acceleration of aging is ozone, a smog component. The scientists were able to isolate reactive, oxygen-containing compounds from the lungs of rabbits exposed to smog concentrations of ozone.

These compounds are formed when the inhaled ozone reacts with proteins and/or fats in lung tissue.

Some of the newly formed compounds cross-link or join the long chains of unusual proteins found in the lungs of rabbits and man, in a process similar to adding more rungs to a ladder that initially has only two or three rungs.

As with the ladder, the protein chains become more rigid, less flexible, and in the case of lung proteins, less elastic.

Since cross-linking appears to be one of the many changes which accompany natural aging, the influence is that breathing of smog may speed the physiological aging of Californians, Dr. Mueller added.

The Ten Commandments For Safe Bike Riding

For the safety of youngsters riding bicycles, the Greater Los Angeles Chapter of the National Safety Council has issued "ten commandments" for proper riding and, at the same time, has urged parents to show and explain them to their young cyclists.

The "ten commandments" are:

--Keep your bicycle under control -- no tricky steering, weaving or racing.

--Stay on the right side of the street, close to the curb. Move with traffic and watch for parked cars turning out or car doors opening suddenly.

--Travel in single file when riding with others, following a full bike's length behind.

--Steer with both hands on the handle grips except to signal when turning, stopping or leaving the curb.

--Ride alone and no big packages. Another person or a large package on your bike can block your vision or throw you off balance.

--Come to a complete stop at all "stop" signs, yield signs and red or amber traffic lights.

--Stop, look and listen before entering a street from a sidewalk, driveway or alley. Drivers may not see you.

--Use your own power. Hitching onto moving vehicles is against the law and, in case of a sudden stop or swerve, off you go.

--Be ready to put on the brakes at intersections-- no pedal pumping as you approach. Get off and walk your bike across busy streets, inside white lines.

--Let people on foot and other vehicles go first when they are about to cross in front of you.

In a further admonition, the Safety Council urged youngsters to avoid busy streets when ever possible and to remember that bicycle riding on a freeway is illegal and definitely out.

"Whatever happened to HERST?"

'Recall Reagan' Signatures Still Being Sought

Recall Reagan workers are still circulating the Recall Petition, using a 60-day extension which ends September 30, 1968. Getting signers is no problem, according to drive workers but the job of finding the precinct number of each signer has hindered the Recall effort.

When using Precinct maps, it takes an average of 20 minutes to look up precinct numbers for one 12-name petition when the signers do not all live in the same precinct.

This means one person working 8 hours a day, would take nearly a month to precinct 700 of the petitions.

The death of C.K. Van Sickle requires Mrs. D.E. Veirs, 936 Buffington St. Upland 91786, 985-3938, to take on his duties as County Chairman for the Recall.

To make the most of the time that's left, Mrs. Veirs will fill requests for petitions only from registered voters of San Bernardino county.

Claremont, Pomona, and LaVerne residents can get petitions by phoning Mrs. Orval Crowder, 593-3895 in LaVerne, and Mrs. Laura Kalmer, 622-8362 in Pomona, and Mrs. Claudia Thomas, 629-1443, near Brea.

Los Angeles county Recall Reagan Committee can be reached by phoning 872-1028 or 788-3063 16917 Ventura Blvd. Suite 5, Encino 91316.

A revised instruction sheet, telling carriers how to get precinct numbers of their signers, will be mailed with each petition Mrs. Veirs supplies to carriers.

Several notarized petitions were received by Mrs. Veirs too late to file on July 31st. To prevent having late petitions in this supplemental drive, the absolute deadline for turning in notarized petitions will be September 21 1968.

Average Property Assessment In County Confirmed At 21.5%

The average property assessment in San Bernardino County was confirmed today at 21.5% of market value, up .5% from 1967, according to the State Board of Equalization.

Chairman Richard Nevins said the state-wide weighted average dipped from 23.2% to 23% "because the percentage in Los Angeles County, which has 38% of the state's taxable property, fell nearly a point."

Percentages for every county but one -- Santa Barbara -- charged in the year as 49 county assessors strove for a uniform 25% assessment percentage required by law in 1971.

However, Nevins, who represents Southern California, said that "Most of the changes were fractional. There were almost as many reasons for the variations as there are counties."

Nine assessors have legally chosen a lesser percentage than the 25% goal this year. They are Stanislaus, 20; Fresno 22; Napa 22-1/2; Marin, Imperial, Siskiyou and Trinity, 23; Sacramento 23.6; and Humboldt, 24%.

"If the assessor is within a point either way of his announced ratio or of the statewide average, taxpayers may consider him on target," Nevins said.

The percentages of market value help decide the distribution of $425 million in school equalization aid, affect school construction loan repayments, and may be used in local equalization assessment appeals.

Generally, counties with lower ratios of assessed to market value were re-appraised by the Board in the last year. These surveys tend to find a lower average assessment level for the county than the economic indicators which are used between the Board's triennial appraisals.

FOOD POISONING

Protect yourself and family against food poisoning on picnics and outings. If you prepare perishable dishes at home, refrigerate them immediately, and keep such food cold until serving or cooking. Discard any food that appears spoiled or tainted. Take along several nonperishable food items such as canned food, potato chips, and clean raw fruits. The use of vinegar in meat, salad and fish dishes will help retard bacteria.

HEATSTROKE

Cool it as much as possible in hot and humid weather, and lessen your chances of suffering heat exhaustion. Victims of heatstroke usually exhibit the following symptoms: pale and clammy skin; rapid and weak pulse rate; complaints of weakness, headache, or nausea; and cramps in stomach, legs or arms. The victim should lie down in a cool place with his head level to or lower than his body. If the person is conscious, give him a salt water solution -- one teaspoon salt to one quart water -- and then call a doctor.

Birth Defects

Birth defects are mistakes in body formation or function that occur as a baby is developing in the womb, explain doctors at Orthopaedic Hospital. These defects may be caused by heredity, disease, something that happens to the infant while growing in its prenatal environment, or a combination of heredity and environment, say the doctors. Orthopaedic Hospital, the largest non-profit medical center for bone and joint disorders in the Southwest, operates one of the 100 Regional Birth Defects Treatment Center under the auspices of the National Foundation-March of Dimes.

Whiplash

Whiplash injury to the neck is best treated by complete rest and comfort, say doctors at Orthopaedic Hospital. Only 6% of all whiplash victims sustain serious injury. Heat, diathermy and rigid neck collars often aggravate rather than relieve whiplash.

Burn Relief

Minor burns should be immersed in ice water to lessen pain and reduce damage to tissue, advise doctors at Orthopaedic Hospital's Emergency Room. Ice water also relieves the discomfort of insect stings and bites.

The first patent issued on an electric iron in the United States was in 1882, but the first practical iron to be marketed was in 1903 by Earl H. Richardson. His iron became famous for its "hot point."

The first commercial electric ranges ever produced in this country were sold in Butte, Mont., in 1910. They were built by the forerunner of the company which today produces Hotpoint appliances.

New Style Playhouse Big Attraction for Youngsters at A-Mart

Joe Green, former building contractor, and now with A-Mart, has designed a playhouse that will be the desire of every young one to possess! Covering a 4'x8' area the house itself measures 6'x6', big enough for the proud owner to entertain his or her friends. The exterior has natural hickory grooved siding, coral frost composition roof and elaborate trimming around doors and eaves. Aluminum screen windows on sides allow plenty of ventilation when the decorative door is closed. Playhouse is constructed in seven pieces so that the "do-it-yourselfer" can easily assemble it in little time. A $190.00 value, A-Mart's price for the complete kit is only $129.00. Or assembled for $145.00. The perfect Christmas gift for a youngster, a lay-away plan is suggested with a small deposit and monthly payments. Only sixty playhouses will be made at A-Mart, so see it today! Located in the Standard Brands Paint Co. shopping center—Holt & Mills—Montclair—at THE place for "do-it-yourselfers."

Gardener's Checklist

Vacation Ends

With the memory of an enjoyable vacation fresh in mind, it usually comes as a depressing shock, that first morning home, to view the garden which looks worse for the wear.

The California Association of Nurserymen suggests that things aren't as bad as they seem. In most cases, a little effort will restore the beauty created by your pre-vacation endeavors.

First order of business is the lawn. Even a well-watered green carpet detracts from the looks of things if it is shaggy or down at the edges. The lawn should be mowed and trimmed. It may be greened-up with an application of quick-acting lawn food, followed by good soakings of water. There will be a noticeable difference in the garden right away.

Next consideration are the shrubs. A thorough soaking is in order. Generally, no matter how well-intentioned is the person left to be the caretaker, shrubs frequently don't receive the long, deep waterings they require.

Roses also will want attention. Faded blooms should be cut back, and a feeding of balanced rose food will provide vigor for fall bloom. If aphids or other pests are evident, a spray program should be launched. C.A.N. nurserymen can recommend specific pest controls to use. These may include the new systemic types—or one which combines insecticide with plant food to be applied near the drip-line of the plants. These control pests and feed plants at the same time.

Other plants that may require attention are Chrysanthemums, in need of staking; and Fuchsias, to be pinched back and fed with fish emulsion or other food. Camellias, Azaleas, and Rhododendrons will be ready for another application of acid type food.

As a final step to restoring the beauty the garden reflects, weeding will undoubtedly be required. Though hand pulling is a sure fire control, there are chemical controls available. Before using such sprays, however, gardeners should consult C.A.N. nurserymen for the right control for the right weed.

Top Flight Gem Show Scheduled For LA Co. Fair

POMONA -- Treasure hunters, rock hounds and jewel thieves will have a special interest in this year's 41st annual Los Angeles County Fair.

Over 2,000 gems, minerals and lapidary projects, a real treasure, will be on display during run, Sept. 13-29, as part of its Gem and Mineral Show.

Included in the exhibit will be competition for four classes of minerals, six divisions of lapidary and one each of handmade jewelry, faceting and fossils.

Entry in the contest is limited to individuals who are members of a recognized gem or mineral club. Collections will be displayed in exhibit cases provided by the fair. The show itself is designed to display works associated with the gem and mineral hobby and will contain exhibits from rock hounds, mineral collectors, lapidary artists and fossil collectors.

No one will walk away empty handed either, except possibly the jewel thieves. All competitors will receive a non-competition ribbon for participating in the show.

ONLY HANGING OF A WOMAN -- Downieville in Sierra County is reported to have staged the only hanging of a woman in California.

Suit Filed Against 'Unfair' Method Of Financing Schools

LOS ANGELES -- The current system for financing public education in California violates the equal-protection guarantees of the Federal and State constitutions, according to a suit filed in Superior Court by attorneys for the Western Center on Law and Poverty.

The result of months of study by Western Center named state and local school and tax officials as defendants in the action and asserted that the scheme of financing the public schools of California makes the quality of a child's education dependent on the accident of the school district in which the child lives.

The Western Center is co-sponsored by legal service programs and university law schools in Southern California and is funded by the U.S. Office of Economic Opportunity. According to Derrick Bell, executive director of the center, the complaint -- which was brought in the name of parents, children and taxpayers -- pointed out that public education, under the California Constitution is a state responsibility requiring state officials to insure that every child receives an equal educational opportunity, wherever he or she resides.

Plaintiffs in the suit are asking that the court find unconstitutional those Education Code sections establishing the present financing scheme and to require the state to provide a system which will effectively permit each child in the state to receive an equal educational opportunity.

In addition, the taxpayer-plaintiffs to the action allege, as a separate basis for granting the relief requested, the fact that under the present financing scheme taxpayers in some places in the state must pay a substantially higher rate of property taxes in order to provide the same quality of educational opportunity available at other locations in the state.

Finally, those of the plaintiffs who are Negroes and Mexican-Americans, contend in their suit that social factors beyond their control -- including discrimination, as the result of race and national origin -- in education, employment, and housing -- limit their choice of residence to districts which, in some cases, receive far less money than do other Americans live.

Western Center attorneys, including the center's Director Bell and Harold Horowitz of the UCLA Law School, contend that there still exists a serious racial imbalance between districts, despite state rules and judicial precedents requiring the correction of such racial imbalance.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

Because of this imbalance, they allege, the current financing scheme has the effect of denying on the basis of race, color, or protected by the equal protection clause of the Fourteenth Amendment and provisions of the California State Constitution. "The theory of the suit is complicated," Director Bell admitted. "We believe, however, that it is a major new thrust to obtain equal educational opportunity in the public schools."

Specifically named defendants in the action are Ivy Baker Priest, treasurer of the State of California; Dr. Max Rafferty, state superintendent of public instruction; Houston I. Flournoy, state controller; Harold J. Owtly, tax collector of Los Angeles County; and Richard M. Clowes, Los Angeles County superintendent of schools.

The more than two dozen plaintiffs are residents of several Los Angeles County school districts, including El Rancho, Compton Elementary and Unified, Whittier Elementary and Union, Little Lake Elementary, and Los Angeles City Schools.

They are filing suit, Bell said, on behalf of all parents and children in similar situations throughout the state.

Attorneys representing the plaintiffs in the action include Charles E. Jones and Michael H. Shapiro, both of the center; Horowitz; and Sidney M. Wotinsky, of the San Francisco Neighborhood Legal Assistance Foundation.

Similar suits to the Western Center action, Bell said, already have been instituted in Michigan and Illinois. Suits in other states are known to be in the planning stages.

The Western Center on Law and Poverty is a consortium of legal service programs, bar associations and USC, UCLA and Loyola University of Los Angeles Law Schools.

Directors of five Los Angeles County legal services programs appear on the complaint as "of counsel." They are: Howard M. Van Elgort, Long Beach Legal Aid Foundation; Frederick Kamminga, Pasadena Legal Aid; Wallace Sides, Los Angeles Neighborhood Legal Services; James Reese, San Fernando Valley Legal Services; and Wadich (cq) S. Shibley.

FLOWERING EUCALYPTUS -- A popular sight with California motorists the flowering eucalyptus tree is reported to grow to a height of 375 feet.

NATIONAL PARKS IN ARIZONA -- Arizona is reported to have 18 national parks and monuments.

Real Estate Facts

By Milton Stone, president Ontario-Upland Board of Realtors

CONTRACT OF SALE

"What is a Contract of Sale?" is a question sometimes asked of a real estate broker. The client is referring to a Conditional Sales Contract, sometimes also known as a Land Contract. The Contract of Sale is an agreement that the buyer will pay off the amount due in equal installments while the seller retains title to the property. In the contract is an agreement that at some future date, when the amount due is paid, the seller will convey title to the buyer.

This differs from the Deed of Trust, which is the most common method used in transferring real estate in California. In the Deed of Trust, title is conveyed to the buyer at the time the Agreement of Sale is completed, but the deed is held in trust by a third party.

When all encumbrances or liens against the property are satisfied, that fact is recorded and full title is given the buyer by the third party. Should the buyer default on paying of the encumbrances or liens, however, the seller can foreclose, that is, take back title to the property under procedures and conditions specified in the California law. The holder of the Deed of Trust then gives it back to the seller.

NOT SATISFACTORY
Most Realtors and other real estate brokers, and attorneys, agree that a Conditional Contract of Sale is generally not satisfactory for either buyer or seller.

It is most often used when the buyer cannot qualify for a loan under more conventional methods or wants to take over an existing loan without having to pay increased interest or some other form of penalty.

Most loan agreements, however, have standard acceleration clauses in them which provide for acceleration of the loan when the property is sold, title transferred, or any interest whatsoever in the property is given another party. Obviously under a Conditional Contract of Sale, an interest is given to another party.

ETHICS TO WIND
Some parties to such a contract may throw ethics to the wind and bend the law by taking the attitude that, what the lender doesn't know won't hurt him. This is possible by the unscrupulous, but title insurance could not be written without existence of the contract being noted as an exception, along with the possibility of loan acceleration being put into effect at some later date. A Conditional Contract of Sale must be recorded and is of public record.

Even if all interested parties know about the Conditional Contract of Sale and the loan is not accelerated, the rights of the buyer and seller are still not clearly established. In the event of default or some other action that requires legal proceedings, the rights of the parties under the circumstances would probably have to be decided by a court of law.

This is not to say that a Conditional Contract of Sale under some conditions is unwise. If everyone knows the risks involved, it still may be the best means available to accomplish transfer of the property in certain cases.

CONDITIONAL CONTRACT
There is another similar instrument that can be used instead of the Conditional Contract of Sale. It is known as the All-Inclusive Deed of Trust. It has also been known as the "Holding-Harmless" or "Overriding" deed of trust. Under its terms, title to the property may be transferred to the buyer and a policy of title insurance issued.

Monster Transformers
Two giant transformers, each as large as a three-story building, were recently installed in the electrical generator station at Copper Cliff, Ontario, to meet the power demands of International Nickel's expanding nickel-producing facilities. A special railroad car had to be built to transport them to Copper Cliff.

Stainless Steel Paint
Nickel stainless steel is now available in a paint for industrial applications. The alloy, in flake form, has shown remarkable ability to fight corrosion when applied to outdoor utility installations and has reduced maintenance costs by as much as 30 per cent.

A banker is a man who will lend you money, if you can prove you don't need it. —Times-Republican, Marshfield, Mo.

His Weakest Moment

Homemaker's Dream Come True
Space For Everything - And Each In Its Place
Space for everything, and everything in its place. That's the dream of every homemaker - particularly when it concerns the kitchen. Imagine having recipes neatly filed - bread near the toaster - and items such as plastic wrap and tea towels within fingertip reach of the area where they're used most often. But this usually isn't the case in most kitchens. "Must have" gadgets have a habit of piling up in drawers, while spices, paper towels and other kitchen standbys are crammed on a shelf - or worse, on the counter. What's more, few kitchens are without catchall corners for recipes, notepads and pencils. No matter the season, it's always time to organize your kitchen and find space for everything. Start by putting the "Three S's" of kitchen organization to work - sort, separate and scrap. Toss out the rusty potato peeler, the broken can opener, the chipped plates and cracked juice glass. Be an Organization Woman and reorganize everything according to where it's used, with cutlery near the cooking area (and out of children's reach) and measuring cups near the flour and sugar. To help you with extra, wherever you want it storage space, Rubbermaid has introduced Spacemakers. These slender drawers offer a

Let's Go Fiskin'
BY BOB BREWSTER
Outdoor Editor, Mercury Outdoors
ASK A "SIMPLE" QUESTION
Smart fishermen ask "simple" questions. At least so it seems on occasion - especially to the green beginner who would rather go home skunked than reveal his ineptitude. It's no crime to ask questions, say the fishing authorities at Mercury Outdoors. In fact, the real pro always takes advantage of every bit of local advice he can ferret out. But whom you ask is important. Certainly, not everyone you run across during a session on the water is worth talking to, much less attempting to obtain information from. In short, seek out the expert. Don't waste time with the individual who swings his rod like a flyswatter. He'll be no real help. Neither will the bank fisherman who usually resents what he considers an invasion of his personal fishing territory. Look for the man using artificial lures, casting smoothly and with little effort. Often this type of person not only can give valid information, but doesn't mind sharing it with others. How he is approached determines his responsiveness. Good manners and courtesy are the mark of top-flight fishermen. Extend them always, and they'll be returned in kind. This means moving up to within talking distance, but without disturbing another's fishing. Never approach through a stretch of water he is going to fish.

Jerry's Journal

by JERRY PETTIS
CONGRESSMAN, 33rd Dist.

We Americans live in the wealthiest, freest nation in the history of the world. Yet, in spite of all our wealth, and all our freedom, we are caught in the grips of a moral epidemic -- an epidemic no amount of medicine can stem.

Crime and violence, in all their vicious, ugly manifestations, are turning American cities into asphalt jungles where property rights, personal rights, and personal safety no longer exist.

The businessman travelling to and from work, the bus driver making his rounds, the housewife in her home, innocent children at play -- all have fallen and will continue to fall victims to America's crime epidemic until something is done to stem the tide of lawlessness which is engulfing the nation.

Just how bad is the crime epidemic, you ask? Even worse than most of us realize. In the short time it has taken you to read this far, somewhere in the United States a murder, a forcible rape or assault to kill has already been committed!

Crime and lawlessness topped the important problems to be solved, according to people in our own San Bernardino County as well as throughout the entire nation.

And no wonder. The FBI reports crime is increasing nine times as fast as our population. Each of us should ask: "Can we afford to ignore this? Can we sit by as the American dream is beaten, murdered and twisted into a hideous nightmare?"

It isn't very pleasant to think about. But unless a lot of us do start thinking about it, and coming up with sound, workable solution, our children won't have much to be grateful for.

They may well ask of us in the years ahead, "Where were you when our country cried out for leadership? What in the name of God was more important than the future of America?"

This is the reason I have chosen the crime epidemic to discuss with you and will continue to write about it in the weeks ahead as I have done in the past. As a husband and father, as well as your representative in Congress, I can do no less. For I feel as you do -- crime and lawlessness are the number one threats to our communities and our country. What is needed most in the fight against crime is leadership -- an example which stands up to this menace and openly, forcefully speaks out against it.

Facing this problem is half the answer to defeating it. Burying our heads in the sand and trying to ignore it is half the way towards surrendering to it.

In the early days of recorded history, 2,000 years before the birth of Christ, Hammurabi, ruler of Babylon, gave his subjects the first known code of laws. In his prologue he wrote, "I establish law and justice in the land."

Those two words, "law" and "justice" have been linked together ever since. Destroy one and the other becomes meaningless. There can be no law, without justice, and no justice without law. I, for one, pledge myself to stand for "law and justice". And I firmly believe that what America needs today, more than ever before, is leadership committed to law and justice.

Chaffey Evening Classes Slated

Registration for evening adult education classes in the Chaffey Union High School District is now being conducted daily at Gardiner W. Spring Auditorium on the Chaffey High school campus.

Registration hours are from 1 to 4 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m., Monday through Thursday and 9 a.m. to noon and 1 to 4 p.m. on Fridays.

Classes are open to all adults 18 years of age or older. There is no tuition charge, but the student must purchase his textbooks and pay for materials and supplies used in the classroom.

The curriculum is planned so that adults may obtain their high school diploma upon completion of graduation requirements. Harvey Shirk, Principal of the Chaffey District Adult School, urges all students to register as early as possible and those interested in a high school diploma to check the graduation requirements and have an evaluation made of school records, work experience and military service to determine their requirements for a diploma.

Last year one hundred and thirty-eight adults completed their high school education and received diplomas from the Chaffey Adult School.

The curriculum follows:

Following are examples of legal shooting hours for the first two days of the season:

Rare Goldfish To Be Displayed At LA Co. Fair

POMONA -- A special exhibit of rare goldfish will highlight this year's aquarium show at the 41st annual Los Angeles County Fair, Sept. 13 through Sept. 29.

A special tank will allow fair visitors to view the half-dozen rare breeds from above while walking past other exhibits.

Along with the goldfish, competitors will display some of the world's most beautiful bettas, tropicals, and guppies.

Show competition will be divided into two sections. Beginning Sept. 13 and running through Sept. 22 will be a display of guppies and bettas. The exhibit of competition goldfish and tropical tanks will run the full length of the show. Close to 100 aquarium exhibitors are expected to enter the competition.

Over a million visitors will see the nation's largest county fair during its 17-day run at the Pomona fairgrounds.

Ride On Street Car Labor Day Holiday At Perris

The power will be on, and the cars will be running again during the entire Labor Day weekend at the Orange Empire Trolley Museum.

Rides on the cars will be offered all three days, Aug. 31, Sept. 1 and 2 from 11 a.m. on, OETM president Hugh Smith announced.

It will be the first public operation of street cars this year at the museum, which was hit late last year by a power blackout when a diesel engine failed. The diesel has been repaired, and OETM members also are working to complete an electrical substation which will draw current directly from commercial sources. This will render operation of the diesel unnecessary for regular operation.

OETM also plans to operate the cars every Sunday during the month of September.

The museum is located at Perris, Calif., just off U.S. Highway 395. Roadside signs give directions to the museum property.

YOUR ASSEMBLYMAN AT WORK

John V. Briggs 35th District

Good news for the veterans came out of the legislature this past session when a bill hiking the ceiling on Cal-Vet loans was raised from $15,000 to $20,000. And the governor recently signed it into law.

But the measure did not have smooth sailing in its legislative course. It went out of the state senate with little difficulty, but ran into trouble in the lower house when they amended it so that:

... No additional Vietnam War Veterans from California will be brought into the program. Originally, the bill called for including all California servicemen into the program.

... Presently-eligible veterans who have not applied for a Cal-Vet loan would have two years to apply from the time the bill goes into law. Originally, the measure would have given them only one year.

The law continues to require veterans-of-the-future to apply within 15 years from their discharge to get a loan.

Presently, only those veterans who participated in a "campaign" are eligible for a Cal-Vet loan, and the new law does not change this. The author said he has been told that all those servicemen who serve in Vietnam are eligible.

An Assembly bill which would have made all servicemen from California eligible for a Cal-Vet loan regardless of whether they served in Vietnam, and would have permitted the use of revenue bonds, as well as general obligation bonds, in financing the program.

The author contended that without additional financing there would not be enough money to handle the increase to $20,000.

But the Assemblyman who carried the Senate bill on the floor of the lower house argued against the use of revenue bonds. He noted there is still $275 million worth of general obligation bonds available for financing the program, which provides veterans—those who enter the service from California—loans to buy farms, as well as homes.

And so the majority ruled, both houses concurred in the changes, and as I indicated before, the governor signed the bill.

At the same time, however, the governor vetoed a bill to require the state department of veterans affairs to make advance payments of taxes and assessments for veterans holding Cal-Vet farm or home loans.

The governor, in his veto message, said the bill would remove "needed administrative flexibility" from the department which now has the discretionary power to make such advance payments.

Under the present administration, the state has discontinued the practice of paying the taxes on all property on which there are Cal-Vet loans and then collecting from the veterans later.

Actually, it would have required the state to set aside $25 million each year for tax loans, which would have resulted in 1,600 fewer loans being made.

SCWC 15% Raise Approved By PVC

LOS ANGELES, August 14 -- The California Public Utilities Commission has granted Southern California Water Company authority to increase rates 15% for customers in its Pomona Valley District.

The district serves some 7,000 customers in Claremont and portions of Chino, Montclair, Pomona, Upland, and unincorporated county territory adjacent to those cities.

Layman's Law Class Slated By Adult

John J. Wren, practicing attorney, joins the Pomona Adult School staff this fall as instructor of law as applied generally to the average citizen in family and community affairs. Wren is a member of the State Bar, the Orange County Bar Association, and several defense attorney associations. He is also a member of the East Los Angeles City College faculty, instructing courses in personal finance.

Law for the Layman as Wren's course is labeled, is designed to acquaint individuals with underlying legal principles in such fields as domestic relations, contracts, civil rights and wrongs, and criminal law.

Wren's class will meet Thursday evenings from 7 to 10 p.m. Registration may be completed at the Adult School office located at 800 South Garey in Pomona. Enrollment hours are 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday, 7 to 8:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday evenings.

Under the rates authorized, bills for the average usage of 3,300 cubic feet of water a month, through a 3/8 x 3/4-inch meter, will go up only 2%, from $6.65 to $6.79. Bills for the same quantity through a 1-inch meter will be 14% higher, going from the present $6.65 to $7.59.

The Commission said the rates authorized should allow the utility to earn a return on its investment of between 6.4 and 6.9%.

Rates in the Pomona Valley District were last set in 1964.

In connection with the company's application, the Commission said its own staff had made field investigations of the com-

The Pomona Concert Band held its annual mile high concert at Mt. Baldy today.

The Band, under the direction of G. Stanton Selby, has been a part of Pomona Day since its conception 5 years ago, and is always the highlight of the day.

Over 500 Progress-Bulletin Free Coupons were taken in at the lifts and a total of over 1200 persons rode the lift on Mt. Baldy's annual salute to the city of Pomona.

In July, similar salutes were given to the cities of Upland and Ontario.

VICTORVILLE--Deadline for entries in the Aug. 31 San Bernardino County Fair parade has been extended to Aug. 17, says chairman C. Donald Smith. Antique autos and floats are most needed.

Garrick Player Tryouts Slated Sept. 3, 4 and 5

A revival of the first play of the first independent season of Garrick Players, "The Torchbearers," will be their second production of the 1968-69 season.

Maxine Coats Lentz, Glendora, is issuing a try-out call for September 3, 4 and 5 at 7:30 in The Castle, C and Lemon, Ontario.

This hilarious story of a very inept little theater group, was one of the first hits of its author George Kelly, who later wrote the now classic "The Showoff." Its Broadway stars were Mary Boland, Alison Skipworth, Arthur Shaw and Douglas Garden.

To complete the cast, six men and six women will be needed. The roles are: the pompous director, the stage-struck housewife, the bereaved widow, the giggling prompter, the spunky maid, the "other woman", the startled husband, the efficacious assistant, the slow-moving stage manager, the self-important hero, the villain, and the errand boy. Mrs. Lentz formerly belonged to the Wheaton Drama Club, and the Oakkosh Little Theater.

"The Torchbearers" will be presented November 8, 9, 15, 16, 22 and 23 at 8:15 in The Castle, C and Lemon, Ontario.

Off-stage workers are invited to attend tryouts and meet the director.

For further information, call president Jack McKenzie, 983-3026.

New UCR Dean Sees Larger Agricultural Role

RIVERSIDE--"We hope to narrow the gap between laboratory discovery and its use by the state's agricultural industry."

That is a major aim of the College of Biological and Agricultural Sciences here, as stated by its dean, Dr. Mack Dugger. The new college at the University of California, Riverside, officially began operations July 1.

To meet the growing needs of California agriculture, Dean Dugger also sees a need to increase and broaden UCR agricultural research and support.

Despite current budgetary problems, Dean Dugger is confident that the merger of broad-based fundamental biological sciences with agricultural departments at UCR will ensure organized, planned growth and the assumption of greater responsibility in research, teaching and community service as the campus grows.

The new college combines UCR's Life Sciences Department of the College of Letters and Science and the School of Agricultural Sciences. The merger coincided with the retirement of Dr. Alfred M. Boyce, longtime associate director of UCR's Citrus Research Center and Agricultural Experiment Station (CRC-AES) and dean of the School of Agricultural Sciences.

"The station's function and means of meeting this function will be preserved," Dean Dugger said. "In addition, it is our objective to increase and broaden the station's research responsibility and support to meet the expanding needs of the state's agricultural industry."

He said this planned effort pertained not only to production research but also to areas such as marketing and agricultural economics and engineering.

"We want to be in a position," Dean Dugger explained, "to anticipate the knowledge required to answer the questions of the agricultural industry, the urban-agricultural community and the state agencies as their needs change in the future."

"Planned changes in the responsibilities of agricultural scientists on this campus aren't new," Dean Dugger pointed out. "There have been many changes over the past 10 years. At one time, research work at UCR was oriented primarily toward citrus. This has evolved into a more general research interest that includes agronomy, vegetable crops and agricultural engineering."

"There will be more changes as we broaden our research base to meet the state's future agricultural needs. Currently planned are research and instructional units in agricultural economics and marketing. We also plan continual expansion in agricultural engineering, postharvest physiology, environmental sciences and the fundamental research which these fields of study require."

"How fast our plans materialize," he added, "largely depend on budgetary support."

Pilot Campaign Now Under-way

"The Pilot Campaign of the 1968 West End United Fund Drive is now under-way," according to George Vinnedge, Drive Chairman. He added, "The purpose of this section of the drive is to set the pace for the campaign by organizing and conducting a campaign in advance among several selected industries and corporations."

The corporation gift as well as the employee gift will be obtained and it is anticipated that the tempo of the entire drive will be set in this Division.

Orville Garrison of Montclair is the Chairman of this Division. Mr. Garrison, currently the Vice-President and Manager of the Upland Branch of the Pomona First Federal Savings and Loan Association was previously with the Bank of America 8 years as Assistant Cashier and Operations Officer and served 8 years as Treasurer of the Claremont Savings and Loan Association.

He is a member of the Kiwanis Club of Upland, presently serving as a member of the Board of Directors. He has previously served as a Board member of the Upland Chamber of Commerce, West End United Fund and the American Red Cross Chapter. He is currently Serrano District Finance Chairman of the Old Baldy Boy Scout Council.

Campaign Chairmen have been appointed for each firm. The following Corporations and Industries will be conducting their campaign within the next two weeks with the listed chairmen in charge: Sunkist - Bob Miller and Pete Kidwell; Otis Elevator - Gary Behunino; Daily Report - Dave Caffoe; Edwanda Steel - Don Fry and Byron Kelsey.
